The President’s Beat

Dear Membership,

I hope that all of our members had a safe and enjoyable summer break.

Congratulations to Oakdale Farms/Denby Park residents who despite the weather, managed to pull off another successful and enjoyable National Night Out. It was a pleasure to meet and work with the residents who served on the Planning Committee. Of course, I have to thank the CPAAAN Members who came out to help and support National Night Out.

August 29, 2013 was opening night for the Citizen’s Police Academy Class. I thank the members who were able to attend and bring a dish. Your contributions are greatly appreciated.

October 28, 2013 is the 21st Annual Crime Prevention Award Ceremony. As I have stated for several months before our summer break, I hope that many CPAAAN members will attend. For those of you who won a ticket, how about purchasing a ticket for your loved one or a friend. Tickets are $30.00 and will be available for purchase at this month's General Meeting. I look forward to seeing all of you.

The meeting was called to order by Yvette Brown. The meeting began with the Invocation, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. A motion was made and seconded to adopt the minutes as printed in the Newsletter. The Treasure Report was read by Ms. Jamie Edmonds. Yvette Brown introduced Lawrence Dotolo, Ph.D., who presented our 2013 CPAAAN Scholarship recipients. Recipients are as follows: 1. Autumn Bullard, 2. Brianna Posch and 3. Hannah Louck. Yvette Brown thank Dr. Dotolo for his continuous support in helping CPAAAN with our Scholarship, we could not do it without him. Ms. Mary Babcock did a presentation on recycling and the need for volunteer for National Night Out. Yvette Brown reminded members of The Citizens Police Academy Graduation, June 20, 2013 @ 6:30 p.m., and also that tickets are now available for The Crime Prevention Award Ceremony, Monday October 28, 2013. Six CPAAAN members were the lucky winners of a ticket for the Crime Prevention Award Ceremony, donated by our Vice-President Marcus Powell. Yvette Brown wrapped the meeting up by encouraging the membership to think of nominating someone for this event, thanking everyone for coming out and to have a safe and wonderful summer, also to watch out for their neighbors. Last but not least, we did the 50/50. The meeting was adjourned.

Recording Secretary
Corporal Jimmy Brewer knows Norfolk. He joined the city police force in 1968 and worked numerous divisions during his 29 years with the department. One month after his retirement from the police department in 1997, Brewer was hired by the Norfolk Sheriff’s Office where he has worked in Corrections and Property.

His law enforcement tenure earned him the respect of his NSO colleagues and the right to retire. “I’m ready,” proclaims Cpl. Brewer, who admits he didn’t get into law enforcement for the money. “You have to want to do it...make people feel safe,” he said. However, Brewer laments that people don’t have “the same respect for law enforcement officers that they used to have.”

He’s highly complimentary of his NSO colleagues. “We’ve got some really good people here, hard working people.”

As a teenager, Brewer worked in the city’s real estate assessor’s office. After high school, Brewer served six years in the Marine Corps Reserves. He also served as a part-time deputy for Norfolk Public Schools. The Granby High School grad doesn’t skip a beat when you ask what he’ll be doing after his September 1st retirement: “I’m going to spend the first three months cleaning out my garage. It’s a mess.” After that, he may consider some part-time hours, perhaps as a civilian back at the Norfolk Sheriff’s Office? In the meantime, he’s looking forward to family time. He has three sons, the youngest is a senior in high school.

Best Wishes to Cpl. Brewer!

Imagine a tractor trailer carrying a hazardous substance collides with another vehicle on the Interstate, and the contents of their cargo begins to leak. You receive notice to “shelter in place” as to protect you from the dangerous chemicals. How will you be notified? What does “shelter in place” mean? What will you do?

Norfolk Fire & Rescue, Norfolk Emergency Preparedness and Response and the Virginia Department of Emergency Management will be on hand for a conversation on how we, as a community, would respond to such scenarios. Please visit Norfolk.gov/Emergency or contact 441-5600 for more details on this and other hazard-related topics.

We will need about 60 people to volunteer to be injured passengers on a plane that crashes just after takeoff. You will be placed either in the plane or around the plane and be given a card of your injuries. This exercise will be to test the response of Norfolk Airport PD & Fire, Norfolk PD & Fire, and VB Fire Departments. This is a good and fun opportunity to watch these first responders at work. The Airport never closes so there will still be planes flying around and taxing into ports. This should be very exciting.

I am starting up a sign up sheet. I will need your name, cell # and email address.
