The President’s Beat

Dear Membership,

Last month, we had the pleasure of welcoming a LTJG Kristopher Wrieden and Petty Officer 1st Class Robert Robertson of the Hampton Roads Coast Guard. The presentation was very informative and engaging. CPAAAN would like to thank LTJG Wrieden and Petty Officer 1st Class Robertson, for taking the time give us an outstanding presentation.

April 23, 2018 was the Youth Academy Graduation at Mary Calcott Elementary School. The class had 28 students that graduated, 2 out of the 28 were not present. Parents and siblings were in attendance and some of the parents thanked CPAAAN for the T-Shirts. For the CPAAAN members that missed the graduation; we have a graduation coming up on May 10, 2018 at 3:45pm, at Tarralton Elementary School. I want to thank Tony Derrell, our CPAAAN photographer, Magalene McKelvey, Linda Stokes and Susan Winstin for coming out and supporting the Graduation.

This month, we will be honoring our CPAAAN Officers of the Year. I hope that you will attend, to support our Officers and hear what they did to qualify as our Officers Of The Year. Just a reminder, May 17, 2017 at 9:30am will be the Police Memorial at City Hall.

Remember to keep in mind that we only have 2 meeting left, before we take our summer break. June, we will be awarding scholarships to three deserving students.

NORFOLK POLICE CHIEF RESCUES CHOKING WOMAN AT LOCAL RESTAURANT

NORFOLK, VA - Police Chief Larry Boone says he was called to put his training into action while out for lunch this week.

"I could tell something was happening," Boone tells News 3. "I panned around the room. I could see people had this look of concern on their face."

On the patio area of No Frill Grill in Ghent, he saw a woman choking.

Another customer was trying to help her, but couldn't stop her from choking, so Boone says he took action. "I gave her two thrusts," he said. "On the second thrust, you could tell it worked because her body was going heavy and it became light. She said, 'I think that did it.'"

Boone says the woman identified herself as a doctor and didn't need further medical treatment. "I want to say based on what I heard it was like an expel of freedom," he said of the woman's breathing.

The veteran officer says he hopes the incident serves as a reminder for people to take first aid classes. "You never know when they're needed," he said. "These are easy to learn and practice. You never know when you might be in a position as I was yesterday to save a life."

Inmates at the Norfolk City Jail are being kept safe and protected from all forms of sexual abuse. After an audit of the facility, the Norfolk City Jail gained its Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) certification on April 27, 2018.

“The Norfolk Sheriff’s Office is committed to maintaining the public’s trust,” Sheriff Joe Baron said. “We want the citizens of Norfolk to know that if you have a loved one in our custody, we are following evidence-based policies and procedures to keep them safe.”

The Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 (PREA) is the first United States federal law intended to deter the sexual assault of prisoners. The bill was signed into law on September 4, 2003. To receive PREA certification, jails must pass an audit that includes compliance to standards meant to protect inmates from sexual abuse from peers and staff. The Norfolk Sheriff’s Office is in full compliance with all standards.

“It’s been a wonderful experience in Norfolk. Sheriff Baron has a very professional staff that takes pride in the facility and agency as a whole,” Ian Rachal, PREA auditor and Certified Jail Manager said. “I definitely feel the offenders at the facility are being protected from all forms of sexual abuse.”
A great time was had by all!

This year for the Crime Prevention Awards Ceremony, all nominees were honored for the contribution they made to their community. As usual, we had a raffle that included: one night’s stay at the Doubletree for two; 50-50 raffle ($138); and a Roku Smart TV. The winners were Marlene Bright, Ms. Davis and Russell Taylor.

CPAAAN is in the process of revamping the ceremony and would appreciate any suggestions for the next event. Please feel free to contact any board or committee member.
